What Personally Identifiable Information is Collected From the Website

TIFL members and other website visitors that register to use www.triitforlife.com by clicking on the interested athlete or mentor links, volunteer link or donation link, voluntarily provide us with contact information (such as name and e-mail address). We use this information internally for contacting visitors with respect to their interest in the training program as athletes and mentors, for volunteer opportunities or sponsorship.

Registered Member Personal Information

When TIFL members's application is accepted to be an athlete or mentor, we collect certain personal information (email, phone number, address, etc., collectively, the "Registered Member Personal Information") as part of the application process. The use of this Member Personal Information is discussed below.

Credit Card Account Information

TIFL utilizes secure transaction methods (SSL) when collecting credit card information over the internet. TIFL does not disclose to third parties credit card account information provided by its members and does not retain credit card information.

How Your Registered Member Personal Information May Be Used

We use your Registered Member Personal Information to provide you with personalized service: to send e-mail alerts to you, create personal access to our internal member website, to answer your requests and to process your membership application.

Electronic Newsletter

We send an electronic newsletter through Constant Contact on a regular basis to our members. The newsletters are sent to your registered email address. We are conscious of keeping the number of electronic communications at a minimum, which includes the weekly newsletter and urgent updates on the weather or training changes.

Listservs, Calendar and Forums

TIFL members are encouraged to join our discussion forums as a way to communicate with mentors and athletes and use the calendar to sign up for TIFL events. Participation is optional and is restricted to current TIFL members on the members' only internal website. Upon registration, you will be signed up and you will provide your own password. You are responsible for maintaining the secrecy of your unique password and account information at all times. Users of listservs and forums agree to use these for lawful purposes and are prohibited from posting any unlawful, harmful, threatening, abusive, harassing, defamatory or obscene material of any kind, including, but not limited to, any material which encourages conduct that would constitute a criminal offense, give rise to civil liability or otherwise violate any applicable local, state, national or international law.

Survey and Polls

From time to time, we may offer surveys and/or interactive polls to users so they can share their opinions with others members, see what our users think about important issues or to improve our training program. Participation in the surveys and/or polls is optional. Opinions and responses are anonymous and not identifiable to any particular member unless clearly noted otherwise.
